

STEPHANIE DORNES

Director of Human Resources

Project Manager Stephanie Dornes became the director of Human Resources (HR) for Claremont University Consortium in July 2015. In this position, Stephanie is responsible for establishing and overseeing CUC's HR practices in recruiting, development, legal compliance, employee relations, compensation and for the management of the HR department. Stephanie also leads the cross-functional employee engagement team for CUC.

Stephanie joined CUC in 2010 as a human resources generalist before becoming a human resources business partner in 2013. In her most recent role, she collaborates with leaders across CUC to provide HR services that include full-cycle recruitment, performance management, compensation analysis, policy development and employee training.

Prior to joining CUC, Stephanie managed multi-state recruiting, onboarding, benefits administration and employee relations for the Geneva Foundation, a non-profit organization that administers grants and contracts for military medical research.

Stephanie earned a B.S. in business administration from Pepperdine University and a M.S. in human resources design from Claremont Graduate University. She is also certified as a professional in human resources by the HR Certification Institute (HRCI) and the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM).
